Re: Public Records Act Request

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Wolff:

This is in response to your letter of September 12, 2011 regarding the Public Records Act.

One of my concerns throughout our course of correspondence is that your various letters have touched on a wide area of topics, including the Brown Act, the Public Records Act and the like. In your latest letter, you continue this process by asking follow up questions. These questions touch on various topics that do not come within the purview of the Public Records Act.

When it comes to the issues of the Brown Act and the Public Records Act, I have no further information or documents for you. In this regard please see my prior correspondence (some with exhibits) dated:

July 8, 2009

March 30, 2011 (letter from City of Rio Dell)
May 5, 2011
May 6, 2011 (letter from City of Rio Dell)

These letters are incorporated herein by this reference.

With respect to the "Concerned Citizens" request, I am not familiar with that case. You filed a case regarding "Concerned Taxpayers" but a copy of that settlement agreement, if any, cannot be found. Since you were a party to "Concerned Taxpayers" you would already have a copy of such a document, in any event.

With respect to categories 4 and 5 of your letter, these "follow up" questions are not part of the Public Records Act.

Very truly yours,

DUN & MARTINEK LLP
